Social and Personal

H OUSE parties continue to engage the attention of the younger society set, and some very pleasing entertaining has been done this month for guests at the country places in Virginia. Mist. Etta Taliaferro, and her brother, Jack Taliaferro, who frequently visit friends in Richmond, are entertaining a house party of some six or eight guests at their summer home, "Sellaby," near Brädshaw, Md. Several dances will be given for the Taliaferro's guests, and smaller affairs will also be given during their stay in Maryland. Those attending the house party are Miss Margaret Daiton and Joe Daiton, of Winston-Salem, N. C., who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allman Blow, in Gloucester, and also spent some time visiting friends in Richmond and Norfolk; Foster Witt, of this city; Mr. Moore, of Norfolk; Paul Bydler, of Baltimore, and others.

OVER GOOD ROADS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., August 14.—
The road contractors for the new permanent roads in Spotsylvania county under the cyditions of the bond issue for $100,000 have about completed the highway from Fredericksburg to Spotsylvania Courthouse Road to Massaponax. In each case it is a splendid plece of work, and an object lesson to the people of this part of the State, showing the great advantages of good roads. Work now has commenced on what was known as the Old Plank Road, leading from Fredericksburg to Chancellorsville. Grading has been completed for over a mile and a part of the roadbed made, and this will also be a beautiful road when finished. People in other parts of Spotsylvania county have been so impressed with the good roads recently built and now being made that a bond issue for funds for making good roads in Berkeley District will be voted on in an election to be held soon. It is confidently expected that the bond issue will be carried, as sentiment for good roads has been greatly increased within the past few months. A good roads association has been organized in Orange county with the following officers: Hon. C. C. Tallaferro, president; Henry C. Warren, serretary; Henry T. Holladay, treasurer.

Not a Chauffeur.

Mr. and Mrs. Geraghty attended services in St. Muchael's Catnedral yesterday. They were quickly recognized. Geraghty is a Homan Catholic, and the fact that his wife attended a church of his faith on the first Sunday after their marriage gave rise to the report that Mrs. Geraghty, who is an Episcopallan, had relinquished her own faith and would adopt her husband's religion. Mr. Geraghty husself, however, said that the story had no foundation.

"You can't get us into a quarrel over religion, so don't try," said Mr. Geraghty, laughingly.

Mrs. Geraghty wore a suit of blue silk, hat and veil of the same shade of blue, white gloves and white shoes completing the costume. Mr. Geraghty wore a dark suit and a straw hat. The pair appeared to be in the best of spirits.

SENATE BILL PROHIBITS

Senator Works, of California, Intro-duces Measure Which Applies to District.

Washington, August 14.—Believing that a halt should be called in the publication of details of horrible occurrences, Senator Works, of Califor to-day introduced in the Senate bill making it unlawful to publish de-tails of crimes and accidents in the District of Columbia.

"Not only does such publication incite others to crime, and sometimes to suicide." said Senator Works, "but it is generally hurtful to the morais and sensibilities of the people to read column after column of sensational stories of crime and criminals. It is impossible to pick up a newspaper to day without seeing story after story of death by violence, horrible accident and other such matters I think it is high time the matter should be given serious consideration."

Senator Works's bill permits the publication of a mere statement of fact that crimes have been committed. The bill read as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation or association to publish in any newspaper or other publication in the District of Columbia an account of any murder, or alleged murder, or any other actual or alleged crime, suicide or other accident, injury or tragedy of any kind, wherever the same may have been committed or happened, other than a mere statement of the fact that such a crime, tragedy or accident has happened, without details, or comments of any kind, with respect to such crime, accident or tragedy, or in respect of or about any person connected with or related to the same.

"Any person, corporation or association who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemann, and shall he field not be same."
